➡ BPE System Enhancement - "No Promotion" Indicator Established
(Contact: Chris Minner, #1642)

- New indicator added to the SIS system that can be updated by ROU or Sales/Retail Rep that indicates "NO PROMOTION" should be planned for a retail account. "NO PROMOTION" indicator should be used by Sales Rep/Account Manager when retail account should not be given a promotion for business reason. New indicator is updated in the same manner as current "PM EXCLUSIVE" and "RJR LOCKOUT" indicators.
- BPE system will be changed in near future to recognize new "NO PROMOTION" indicator. Model generated for each promotion will not calculate a SKU for these accounts. Enhancement will allow each region to identify difference between delivery issues with VAP and accounts that should not receive a SKU for a business reason.
- You will be notified via ROU brief when model will begin recognizing the "NO PROMOTION" indicator. Suggested that the new indicator be updated now in preparation for this change.
- Enhancement Effective: Immediately

➡ SMS General Shipment Module Enhancement
(Contacts: Kay Adams, #7107, and Jasper Spencer, #6093)

- Orders requested through General Shipment Module of SMS (Function 422) sometimes arrive in partial shipments when it was necessary for complete order to deliver at one time for installation purposes. An enhancement has been added to general shipment module which will allow user to make a decision about when items deliver.
- When user gets to Inventory Exception Screen within the general shipment module, a question will be asked: "Do you want to hold all items until backorders are filled?" Response will be required, Y=Yes or N= No.
- If response is N (NO), at end of ordering process, a statement will appear on screen providing opportunity to reconsider: "Available items will be shipped immediately. Backordered items will be held until filled. Do you want to hold all items until all backorders are filled?" Response of Y=Yes or N=No will be required.
- If the initial response was Y (Yes), there will be no additional prompt for reconsideration.
- System changes effective 7/01/97.
